"Do YOU WANT TO EXPORT? Don't Forget Our Neighbors"

Exporters need to look no farther than the immediate north and south for excellent trade opportunities. Canada and Mexico remain the top U.S. export markets with record-breaking paces in 2022. The U.S./Mexico/Canada Agreement is the framework that allows for the tariff-free shipping of products of North American origin to all three markets.

This session will review the critical content of the U.S./Mexico/Canada Agreement, market opportunities, and fundamentals of shipping products to Canada and Mexico. Also, learn more on how SBDC can help you successfully export to Mexico or Canada with our expert NO COST consulting services!
